God of Vengeance at Work!

“My boss was denied promotion in 2011. Thereafter, his uncle visited him in Lagos. The moment he stepped into the living room and saw Bishop Oyedepo’s picture on the calendar, he screamed and told my boss to remove the calendar because he saw fire coming through the microphone held by the Bishop. When my boss called and informed me about it, I came to the house to pray and anointed the house. At that time, his uncle had parked out to the Boys’ Quarters because he was not comfortable in the main house. The next morning, he left for the village at Akwa Ibom State. On getting back to the village, He was struck with Paralysis. While confessing and crying, he told his children to tell my boss to stop the man on the calendar from pouring fire on him and that he

Delivered from poisonous food materials

“My wife received food items as a gift from an old woman who was our neighbor. We never knew that the items were poisoned. When we ate them, everybody in the house became sick. On the third day of the 21-day prayer and fasting, I went to church and the Resident Pastor said, ‘The God of vengeance would arise suddenly in someone’s case.’ I keyed into that word and continued praying. When we got home that day, we were told that the woman who gave us the food items collapsed and was rushed to hospital where she later died. I thank the God of vengeance Who proved Himself.” — K.
