

1. Exemption from Job Termination to Promotion!

‘On 1st March 2026, I attended the Special Anointing Service, and after the Anointing Oil from the altar was blessed, I administered it as instructed. I placed it on my head and declared my exemption from every form of evil. The next day, while on my way to work, some of my colleagues called to inform me they had been given termination letters because the organisation was downsizing, and over 40 workers were laid off. Two days later, instead of being laid off, I was promoted to a Business Development Officer. I give God all the glory!’

2. Rescued from Kidnappers Den!

‘I was on my way traveling to Kaduna, I began to listen to messages of Bishop David Oyedepo’s on my phone and on my way, I listened to Tongues of Fire message. Thereafter, thirty minutes to my destination, I was kidnapped along with others in the bus by the Fulani herdsmen.

They took us into the bush and started beating us, but while they did all that, I was not perturbed; I was smiling. So, they asked me, “Who are you? You put an earpiece in your ear while we are still beating you.” They removed the earpiece, and one of them put it in his ear. Then he asked me, “Are you a winner member?” and I said I am. Immediately, they gave me back all they collected from me and asked me to leave because I was a danger to them. While I was leaving, suddenly, a Muslim woman shouted, “I am also a winner member!” She was released, and we both went to the Kaduna church to share our testimony. I return all the glory to God!’ — Brother Damilare

3. Rescued from Kidnappers Den!

‘Last month, on my way back from a trip, our vehicle had a flat tyre along Ibadan expressway. While waiting to fix it, two people came down from another vehicle; they had on them police camouflage. When they got to us, they started searching us, and I was the first they searched. When they opened my bag, they found my Bible, and on it was the winners’ sticker that had Bishop David Oyedepo’s picture. Then they asked whose picture was it, and I said it was my father’s picture. So, they separated me from the others, and while they hypnotized them, they took them away. Thereafter, they released me, gave me one thousand naira and warned me not to report to the bishop. I give God all the glory!’ — David Olatoye

4. Rescued from Hired Assassin!

‘A customer called me to deliver some goods for him, when I got there, I called him, and he asked me to call his brother, who would direct me. I did, and the brother asked me to take a bike to a junction, and I did. I met with him, and he took me through a path that looked like a forest. Suddenly, he stopped, and four armed men came out of the bush with AK-47 and machetes. One of them slapped me and told me the man that asked me to come sent them to kill me. Then he shot at me at close range, but the gun did not respond. The other three opened fire, and the same thing happened. They also used a machete on me, but it was as if it was landing on a water plastic because I could not feel it.

When their leader came out of the bush, he asked them to collect my phone, and he searched through my pictures. Then he saw Bishop David Oyedepo's picture and asked if I am a winner, and I said I am, and he said we are not a human being but a God and they left. However, God brought a helper that came and assisted me back to the main road. I came out of it all with no scratch. I give God all the glory!' — Augustine Ogbeche

5. Supernatural Protection from Armed Robbery Attack!

“I travelled for a burial at Aruchukwu. At home, I picked some cassettes containing Bishop David Oyedepo's messages. I went to Aba to board a night bus. On getting to Shagamu, we ran into a group of armed robbers, and the driver was asked to park the vehicle. Every passenger in the vehicle began to panic, but God gave me the courage to tell the driver to increase the volume of the cassette recorder playing bishop's message the more, and see what God would do.

People in the bus started suspecting me, because they noticed I was not afraid of the armed robbers, but I kept on telling the driver to increase the volume of the message, until he increased it to the loudest.

Eventually, when we had parked and the leader of the armed team heard the preaching on the tape, he stood for a while and said, 'You people should carry your problem and go!' That was how we left there untouched, unharassed and not robbed. I give praises to God.” — Yohama, D

6. Delivered from Armed Robbery Attack!

I have come to return all glory to the God of this commission for all he has done in my life. Last week very early in the morning armed robbers came to our compound and my house was the first one they came into. They were speaking different languages and when they got to my corridor they flashed their torch light through my window then one of them said, “Babawanibiyi, e w'oke!” (Daddy is here, look up!) referring to the Winners Satellite Fellowship (WSF) banner carrying the photograph of Bishop Oyedepo hang on my house. With that, they left my compound without harming anybody. They went to the compound opposite and shot a man in his eyes, they also shot a child and carried out lot of evils but God of Wonder Double rescued me and people living in my compound. Praise the Lord. ---Oguma Adedoyin

7. Rescued from Untimely Death!

‘My parents had issues with childbearing, and so, they went to the Osun deity for children. Thereafter, my mother conceived and gave birth to a set of twins, and they were told we would only live for 50 years. Meanwhile, I joined this Commission 25 years ago; thereafter, I joined the security unit and belonged to a cell fellowship, and God preserved my life. In February 2026, I clocked 70 years old. I return the glory to God!’

8. Indeed, My Case Is Different

I returned from Shiloh 2016 on Sunday 11th, December 2016. On Monday 12th December 2016, I went out to wash my car, when a trailer loaded with (PMS) failed break and fell in the gutter beside the car wash directly opposite my car and busted into flames. I left the car at the front of the burning tanker in the midst of the fire and ran for my dear life. After two hours of the inferno, 18 cars burnt to ashes ,2 filling stations burnt down, A car wash stand burnt to ashes, an upstairs building burnt down, 2 persons died, only my car directly at the front of the burning tanker with am a Winner Family Sticker with Bishop Oyedepo picture was exempted, even though, the car doors and boot were left opened. All the people gathered to know the man that owned this car. Indeed, My Case Is Different. — Dcn. Linus Patta

9. Rescued from Accident via the Mantle!

'On 4th April 2026, while on my way to Abuja, I was prompted by the Holy Spirit to bring out my Mantle. I did; I wiped my head with it and rebuked every form of accident. A few minutes later, a truck suddenly came from behind and hit my vehicle; while my car somersaulted six times, the truck ran into other vehicles, and a lot of lives were lost, and vehicles were destroyed. The five of us in my car came out of that accident unscathed, and everyone testified that indeed this was the God of Bishop David Oyedepo at work. I return all the glory to the God!' — Jephthah Gold
